

Collecting a Sinus Sample (SinusKey)

- Have patient forcefully blow their nose into a tissue. If mucus is too thick to mobilize well, saline nasal spray can be used prior to collection
- Collect as much mucus as possible on the sterile swab, especially any colored mucus.
- Put the swab into the specimen tube and push tightly to seal the tube.
- Follow packaging instructions to return kit to Regenerus

